

Because everyone has memories to process & transform, when a place gives ears to your story, that place becomes home.

COMBAT PAPER

is for EVERYONE

What is Combat Paper? Founded in 2007 by Veterans of the Iraq and Afghanistan Wars, Combat Paper is dedicated to honoring the stories of veterans and active duty service-members by giving them a creative outlet whereby they turn memories into personal documents. Military uniforms are turned into paper pulp and workshop participants "pull" or "create" sheets of one-of-a-kind paper. The process is cathartic and meaningful for everyone who participates. You do not need a uniform in order to participate.

Free & open to the public
