

#MilChat on Twitter

Hosted by @StopFraudCo, the Colorado Attorney General's Office Consumer Protection Section
Charitable Giving in the Military Community
December 13, 2018 at 1 p.m. M.T. / 3 p.m. E.T.

Promo Tweets:

Join us for the next #MilChat on 12/13 at 1 pm MT with @StopFraudCo. We'll be chatting about Charitable Giving in the #Military community! #CCPM2018

Mark your calendars for the next #MilChat on 12/13 with @StopFraudCo! 📅 We'll be talking about making charitable donations in the #Military community at 1 pm MT! #CCPM2018

Questions:

- Q1 What should donors consider before making a gift to a charitable organization?
- Q2 How can people research charities they're considering making a contribution to?
- Q3 Charities can spring up when a tragedy or disaster like wildfires strike. What should donors know about giving to brand new charities?
- Q4 How can I determine the best way to help people affected by the recent natural disasters?
- Q5 Unscrupulous individuals may impersonate military or military causes to seek donations. How can we spot charity scams?
- Q6 What other donation scams try to take advantage of the military community?
- Q7 The internet makes online donating easy, but what should donors know about giving online?
- Q8 Charities (and scammers) may use new texting technology to solicit your donation. What should donors know about giving through texting?
- Q9 Do you have any other charitable donation tips for the military community?
- Q10 Where can donors find more information to help them give wisely?

Join our monthly #MilChat on Twitter during the second Thursday of every month at 1 p.m M.T. / 3 p.m. E.T.