BREAK THROUGH YOUR BARRIERS

Manna Connect is a personal development program that provides its participants with community, coaching, and career skill advancement as they work to identify and overcome barriers to self-sufficiency and wholeness.

COMMUNITY

Gather together twice a month to share a meal, build relationships, and participate in guided learning. Therapeutic child care is provided, while you share life and learn valuable skills with others in the program.

COACHING

Get paired one-on-one with our professional coaches who will help support you in establishing and nourishing your personal goals. Meet regularly to identify and overcome your barriers from finances to housing and more.

CAREER

Build the skills you need to bring home a sustainable wage through educational opportunities in desired fields of meaningful employment.
