Military Virtual Chat Series

Leidos is hosting ongoing monthly virtual chats for transitioning military, veterans, and military spouses. Join us to learn more about our opportunities and connect directly with our talent acquisition team. Talk with representatives from our Defense, Intelligence, Health, and Civil Groups as well as members of our Corporate and Leidos Innovations Center teams about opportunities within their organizations. We look forward to helping you become familiar with Leidos—our people, programs, and the career opportunities across the company. Join us in our work making the world safer, healthier, and more efficient.
