

SPOTLIGHT SERIES

Craig A. Jones
PMP, PMI-ACP

Craig was retired from the United States Marine Corps in 2010 following his service during Operation Iraqi Freedom, which resulted in extensive combat wounds; not allowing him to return to his assigned duty. Along with the award of the Purple Heart, he also earned the Navy and Marine Corps Achievement Medal with a combat distinguishing device, among his many unit and individual awards. He began his civilian career in the public safety sector.

Presently, Craig is a Development Product Owner that leads key strategic IT development initiatives for USAA, along with leading their veteran's employee resource group, VETNet, for the Phoenix Region. Craig holds a Master of Science degree in Personal Financial Planning and a Bachelor of Applied Science degree in Operations Management.

Craig is an Ohio native and moved to Arizona with his family as a child, making it his home. Together, with his wife, he is raising two children in the city of Phoenix.

Translating Military Experience to Corporate America and the Importance of Mentorship

Friday November 6th 12pm EST

Stacy Trucott

Stacy Trucott is a Senior Customer Trainer at BlackBerry for their Crisis Communication Software (AtHoc). He oversees customer implementation projects on a global scale, provides on-site and on-line emergency operations discussions, along with software configuration and training of their solution.

Prior to joining BlackBerry, Stacy retired from the United States Air Force where he spent two years as the Non-Commissioned Officer in Charge of Security Forces Operations. He led an Integrated Project Team on a Headquarters United States Air Force directed project implementing new technology for First Responders. Within his career in the Air Force, Stacy also spent time as an Emergency Management functional expert, a Non-Commissioned Officer in Charge of the Military Working Dog Kennels at Scott AFB, IL, a Military Working Dog Trainer, a Military Working Dog Handler, and also served for 5-years as a Military Training Instructor and completed Air Force Basic Military Training.

Stacy enjoys spending time with his wife Amy and their six children and mentoring veterans before, during, and after their transition from the military.