

Children of the National Guard and Reserves

Supporting the children of deployed National Guard and Reserve personnel who are serving our country overseas.

Our Military Kids awards up to $300 per child for the activity of their choice, which will help military children relieve stress and gain self-confidence while their parents serve our nation overseas. This grant program is made possible by the generosity of foundations, corporations and individual donations.

Activities help children cope with stress, anxiety, and additional challenges that may arise while a parent is absent during deployment. The grants also serve to honor the sacrifices that children make during this time.

SARAH, 11 YRS. OLD

"[Our Military Kids] was a major factor in helping me overcome my depression," Sarah said. "I look back on it and can't help but think how extraordinary it was that dance had such a major impact on my life. I learned to survive and believe in myself, have confidence to go after my dreams, and not to give up."

TREY, 11 YRS. OLD

Trey was diagnosed with dyslexia just weeks before his father was scheduled to deploy. While he needed tutoring, he had tested too high to receive any assistance from the school. A grant from Our Military Kids gave him the help he needed and allowed him to focus on his studies while his dad served our country. Because of the grant for tutoring, Trey's reading comprehension is on par with his grade level.

When a military officer was asked what he needed in Iraq, he said, “Please don’t send cookies, care packages, or socks. Just help take care of our children.”
Our Military Kids is heeding his plea.
